NEWS OF STATE.

MURFREESBORO NOTES.

Mrs. Randolph Clark is the guest of Mrs. Cornelia McDowell.

Mr. W. L. Jones, of New Orleans, La., now a student of Meharry, spent Sunday with J. Wyman Brady.

One of the most enjoyable evenings of the season was spent last Thursday, when a jolly crowd left the city for the beautiful home of Mrs. George Ransom about a mile from the city, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Sublett.

Messrs. J. Wesley Maney, Frank Patterson and Perry Bonds spent Sunday in the city.

Mr. J. Wyman Brady was host at dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. W. L. Jones. Those present were Messrs. A. Gather, Erskin Green, Perry Bonds, Wesley Maney, Frank Patterson, W. L. Jones, Misses Mamie J. Gannaway, Johnnie O'Neal, Elma A. Williams, Mesdames Cornelia McDowell, Randolph Clark, J. B. Sublett.

Miss Johnnie O'Neal was hostess Sunday evening at 6 o'clock tea in honor of Mr. W. L. Jones. Those present were Messrs. J. Wyman Brady, W. L. Jones, A. J. Anderson, Misses Mamie J. Gannaway, Cordelia Butler and E. A. Williams.

Misses Satie N. Williams and Lucile Butler left Friday for Nashville, where they will enter Walden University. They were accompanied by their sisters, Misses Cordelia Butler and Elma A. Williams.

Miss Ora E. Green has just closed a successful term of school and is in the city. She will leave for Walden University Monday.

Misses Florence Kirk and Idella Sanford are in the city.

Revs. B. F. Anderson and W. R. Smith and Mrs. T. S. Williams left for Memphis Tuesday where they will attend the annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The Ladies' Aid Society gave a "sock social" at Keys Chapel Monday evening, which was successful, raising $24.32.

Mrs. Patsy Vaughn entertained last week in honor of Miss McKain, of Columbia. A two-course menu was served. Those present were Messrs. Aaron Gather, Ed. Turner, A. J. Anderson, Erskin Green, Misses Mamie Vaughn, Mattie Qualls, Lula Cowan and Elma Howland.

CLARKSVILLE NOTES.

From all parts of the city scores of children were seen last Monday morning wending their way toward the public school building, corner Franklin and Tenth street, in order to be enrolled for the next scholastic term. One thousand pupils, more or less, were given certificates of admission during the first week, and both teachers and children were put to some inconveniences on account of the overcrowded conditions of the rooms. Thus the school problem remains unsolved and when others appear for admission, the principal and teachers will no doubt spend many restless hours trying to devise ways and means to give justice to the sixteen hundred children of school age, with only one school building and thirteen teachers available.

The telephone situation becomes interesting reading matter each succeeding day. It seems that the telephone company and city have made a study of the ethics of church disputes, as both are resorting to the "injunction way." One day the company enjoined the city; the next the city had service served on the telephone company. Mass meetings and counter demonstrations are now in order. Of course, having a representative on the city council makes the colored citizens a party to the action. If the city wins in the law suit compelling the telephone company to put its wires underground, a good portion of the work will be done by colored workmen; but if the company wins and recovers damages from the city, the colored citizens of Clarksville will see an additional tax in the near future to help pay for mistakes made.

Somewhat like the babbling brook, "Men may come and men may go," but it seems shows and circuses come to this place forever. Clarksville so far has had Cole Bros., then Hagenbecks & Wallace, and on October 1, Buffalo Bill and his Wild West Show will do the town; but the last straw that will break the camel's back will be Ben Tillman and his pyrotechnics on November 15th.

Rev. E. H. Smith, of Mt. Olive Baptist Church, offered his resignation as pastor last Wednesday night in a special church meeting. He has received a flattering call to one of the Baptist churches of Steelton, Pa., a suburb of Harrisburg.

The Ladies' Embroidery Club gave an informal affair at the residence of Mr. Ned Smith last Thursday night. The Knights Templar in full regulation uniform, under command of Capt. S. M. Steele, was the principal feature.

St. Paul A. M. E. Church has a new pastor, Rev. D. L. Irving, a brother of Rev. James Irving, the presiding elder of the Zion Connection.

COMMUNION SETS.

VESSELS WITH WHICH TO ADMINISTER THE LORD'S SUPPER.

THE most sacred ordinance that can be observed by all churches is that known as the Lord's Supper or, in other words, Sacrament. We do not think it is in keeping with these sacred ordinances of the Lord's Supper in church now-a-days to try to administer it with out the proper vessels.

Every Church Ought to Have a First-Class Communion Set.

They can have them made out of the best grade of quadruple-plated table silverware if they desire them. The Church Supply Department of the National Baptist Publishing Board has just received from their factory a new lot of this high-class ware, and would take pains in showing them to any one.

The Prices are Within Reach of All and Terms are Reasonable.

No church ought to be willing to use glass dishes or the like for these ordinances when they can have the best grade of silver at moderate prices.

A QUADRUPLE-PLATED COMMUNION SET.

2 Plates, 2 Goblets, 1 Quart Flagon.

A marriage quietly solemnized, but which will be of much interest to their many friends was that of Miss Anna Wilson and Mr. James Buckner, both of Hopkinsville, Ky., at 6 o'clock last Sunday at the residence of a mutual friend of the contracting parties in this city. Mrs. Buckner returned Sunday night to take up her school duties.

Mr. William Buck, one of the oldest and highly respected citizens of this place, died from infirmities of old age last Tuesday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McFall, Third street. Mr. Buck had been in declining health for several weeks, and while his death was expected, his sudden taking-off was a shock to his many friends and an irreparable loss to the community. The funeral services over his remains were held at St. Peter's A. M. E. Church, Thursday afternoon with Revs. Rye and Gardner officiating. Mr. Buck was considered one of the wealthiest colored citizens of this place.

The Montgomery County Colored Fair Company will have their third annual fair and stock show October 3, 4, and 5, at Dunbar Cave.

Mrs. Minnie Fields Davis, of Chicago, has had a handsome tombstone erected in one of the cemeteries of the city to mark the last resting place of her father, Rev. G. W. Fields, who died thirty years ago.

Rev. G. W. Hampton was in Mound City, Ill., last week.

Mrs. Sarah Flagg, after spending several days, the guest of Miss Kimbrough, returned to Nashville Saturday.

Miss Bessie Whitfield, after spending several weeks at Beersheba Springs, returned home last Friday.

Mr. Harry Silsby is in El Paso, Tex., for his health.

Mrs. Mattie Day and husband, of Henderson, Ky., were in the city last week.

Mrs. Lizzie Thomas, of Owensboro, Ky., returned home Friday.

Miss Emma Kay, of Louisville, will be the guest of Mrs. Chas. Smith during the school session.

Mrs. Willa Clemmons came in from Nashville last Saturday.

Prof. W. P. Irvine has returned from a two months' visit to Lawrenceburg and Columbus.

Prof. F. G. Carney came in from Murfreesboro last Friday.

Mr. Geo. W. Berry, Jr., of Owensboro, spent several days in the city.

Mr. James Buckner, of Hopkinsville, was in the city Saturday and Sunday.

Dr. S. Jefferson returned from Nashville Monday.

Mr. J. W. DeWees, of Hopkinsville, is in the city.

Misses Gladys and Anna Austin, returned from Sailor's Rest, Tenn., Monday.

SMYRNA NOTES.

The long continued suffering of Mrs. Catherine Etter came to an end when on last Monday night she breathed her last. The funeral took place on Wednesday. She leaves a husband, three married daughters, two grown sons, five small children, the youngest of which is two years old. She was a good wife and mother, and an member of the Baptist church.

Mrs. John Phillips, of Washington, Ky., arrived Monday night just in time to witness the funeral of her cousin, Mrs. Etter. She is visiting her mother and Mrs. Caroline Charlton's family. Before returning home she wishes to visit friends in Nashville, Murfreesboro, and her brother at Chattanooga.

After spending a week at home recuperating, Mr. John B. Ridley returned to Nashville Sunday morning.

Rev. L. W. Florer, pastor of the M. E. Church here, preached his farewell sermon Friday night, and left for Memphis to attend the annual conference.

Mrs. L. F. Ferguson is attending the conference at Memphis this week, and Miss Caledonia Youngblood, of Murfreesboro, is filling her place in the school room during her absence.

Mrs. Charlotte Buchanan and sister, Katie, attended the Baptist Association at Murfreesboro Sunday.

Mrs. Bettie Frierson spent part of last week in Nashville, where she had a sick child. We are glad she has returned with Romeo much improved.

Little Narcissa Weakley spent Sunday night with her sister Fannie Lou.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Burnett is gladdened by the arrival of a baby boy, mother and son are doing well.

SPRING HILL NOTES.

The people of Spring Hill have had very nearly a water famine for the last week or so. Last Saturday afternoon we had quite a rain.

Mr. Jas. A. Crutcher and family have moved to Spring Hill.

Mrs. Sallie Blair has been on the sick list for the last few days.

Norman McLemore has gone to Nashville to spend a few days.

Mr. Rush Renfro has been employed in Mr. Hargrove's butcher shop.

Messrs. Jas. Shy and Lewis Caldwell have returned from Mt. Pleasant where they were working in the phosphate mines.

Mr. Monroe Lee has been selling a great quantity of sorghum in our town. Mr. Lee is a well respected citizen of Duplex.

Rev. Collin Marsh, of Memphis, Tenn., preached two sermons at the Baptist Church.

Mrs. Annis Clagett has been sick for the last few days.

There will be a County Fair at Columbia Thursday, Friday and Saturday of September. We are expecting a profitable session.

Mr. and Mrs. Green McGlothen lost their little baby, which was only sick a short time. The remains were laid away in the Thompson Cemetery.

Mr. R. Kissack had the misfortune of sticking a nail in his foot. He is getting better.

Mrs. Sallie Spence, of Franklin, has been visiting her father, Rev. G. T. Thompson, for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Florence Bunch, of Nashville, is visiting her brother, Mr. Jenne Bunch.

We are still calling for 100 paid up subscribers.

ENTERTAINED IN MOORETOWN.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Childress, of Mooretown, entertained four of the members of the Queen Esther No. 10, with a four-course dinner. Those to partake of the delectable dinner were Madams J. A. Bullock, M. E. Hancock, Robert Dodd and A. B. Carter. The evening was spent in conversation.
